PREAMBLE

We, the students of Kapi'olani Community College, by authority of the Board of Regents of the University of Hawaii, in order to promote welfare and development of active and responsible citizens through involvement in co-curricular activities, do hereby establish this charter for the Associated Students of Kapi'olani Community College

ARTICLE I. - NAME

This organization shall be known as the Associated Students of Kapi'olani Community College hereinafter referred to as ASKCC.

ARTICLE II. - PURPOSE

The purpose of the organization shall be to develop, implement programs and activities which promote active participation in co-curricular activities that are responsive to the needs and interests of the students. ASKCC is chartered by Kapi'olani Community College to fulfill this purpose.

ARTICLE III. - MEMBERSHIP

Section A. Active Membership

All students of Kapi'olani Community College shall be members of ASKCC upon payment of their student activities fees for the current semester.

Section B. Other Membership

Membership other than that described in section A of this article may be granted by majority vote of the Student Congress. Majority vote is defined as 50% plus one vote of the members present. Quorum is required for majority vote.

ARTICLE IV. - INDEPENDENT GOVERNING BODIES

Section A. The Student Congress of ASKCC

The Student Congress shall be an autonomous governing body of ASKCC, governed by this charter. The official colors of the Student Congress shall be monarch blue and white.

Section B. Board of Student Publications (BOSP)

The BOSP shall be an autonomous governing body of the ASKCC, governed by its own charter.

Section C. Board of Student Activities (BOSA)

The BOSA shall be an autonomous governing body of the ASKCC, governed by its own charter.

ARTICLE V. - FINANCES

Section A. Finances

1. The student activity fee shall be divided as follows:
 - 75% for the Board of Student Activities
 - 25% for the Student Congress
2. The BOSP shall prepare its own budget, which will be funded by a separate BOSP fee.
3. The Student Congress shall have the power to review and recommend all student fees assessed by the college to include tuition within Board of Regents policies relation to tuition and fees.
4. All budgets shall be subject to review and approval by the chancellor or designee.
5. Furthermore, the budgets for BOSP, BOSA, and Student Congress shall be publicized and reviewed to minimize duplication and overlap, and to allow for consultation with above bodies for adjustments and possible reallocation by the chancellor or designee.

Section B. Accountability

All governing bodies of the ASKCC shall be subject to audits in accordance with the college's schedule for audits of non-general fund accounts. These may be annual audits at the discretion of the Student Congress or the Chancellor.

ARTICLE VI. STUDENT CONGRESS OF ASKCC

Section A. Membership

1. There shall be one (1) student representative from each student club that is recognized by the Board of Student Activities by the deadline for club registration as set by the BOSA for the fall semester and one (1) student representative from each of the Boards of the ASKCC.

2. There shall be a number of at-large seats available to the members of the ASKCC. This number of at-large seat shall be no less than ten (10) positions open for elections equal to the current number of registered clubs and Boards recognized by the Board of Student Activities at the end of the previous academic year, if that number is greater than ten (10).

Section B. Qualifications

1. All official Student Congress members, elected at-large members as well as appointed RIO and CSO representatives, must be currently enrolled at Kapi'olani Community College, and shall maintain enrollment in at least six (6) credit at Kapi'olani Community College.
2. Additionally, these representatives must maintain at least a 2.0 grade point average (GPA). No representative may begin a term with a GPA lower than 2.0. If a representative fails to meet these minimum requirements at any time during the term of office, they must inform their advisor(s) immediately and submit their resignation in writing at the next ASKCC Student Congress regular business meeting.
3. All ASKCC Student Congress officers must meet the following enrollment criteria: (a) be enrolled in at least six (6) credits at Kapi'olani and (b) be home-based at Kapi'olani.

Section C. Advisor

The Chief student affairs officer shall serve as consultant to the Congress and have ex-officio membership. The advisor shall also have ex-officio membership. If a faculty member is invited to become an advisor, he/she shall also have ex-officio membership.

To increase coordination and collaboration between and among BOSP, BOSA, and Student Congress, a Student Engagement coordinator position will be created to provide oversight and serve in an advisory capacity to the student boards.

Section D. Powers and Duties

In providing out-of-classroom opportunities for students to gain practical experience in the actual operation of an organization:

1. The Congress shall advocate for the best interests of the Kapi'olani Community College students.
2. The Congress shall have the power to review and make recommendations to the chancellor in all areas affecting the student experience (such as college governance, academic regulations, curriculum development, instruction, support services, co-curricular activities and student rights) and shall have representation on committees and councils of the College.

3. The Congress shall keep the student body apprised of all matters addressed by the Congress and operate in a transparent and open manner.
4. The Congress shall foster relationships between groups and organizations and work cooperatively and/or collaboratively with students, faculty, staff, administration, community, and other group to further the interests of the students.
5. For students participating in clubs, boards, committees, and other student organizations and activities, the Congress in collaboration with BOSA, BOSP, and Student Engagement coordinator shall provide leadership development through credit and/or non-credit classes and attendance at conferences and workshops.
