UH West O'ahu hosts Chamber Music Hawaii concerts this spring
All concerts are free for students with valid ID

KAPOLEI --- The University of Hawai'i – West O'ahu will be filled with the sounds of beautiful music this year as host to a Chamber Music Hawaii concert series featuring the Spring Wind Quintet, Honolulu Brass Quintet and Galliard String Quartet. These Chamber Music Hawaii ensembles will perform a three-part concert series in West O'ahu at the University's Kapolei campus. All ensemble members are full-time musicians with the Hawai'i Symphony Orchestra (formerly the Honolulu Symphony).

Open to all, the concerts are free for students and will take place in UH West O'ahu's Library that provides a marvelous acoustic setting for the evening performances. Audiences will also enjoy a free Chamber Music 102 presentation featuring a fun introduction to chamber music at the UHWO campus by Assistant Professor of Music Dr. Jon Magnussen. The concert schedule is:

Sunday, Feb. 22, 4 p.m.
Chamber Music 102 presentation
UH West O'ahu, Campus Center C225

Join Chamber Music Hawaii's Galliard String Quartet and UH West O'ahu Assistant Professor of Music and composer Dr. Jon Magnussen for a fun and informative introduction to the chamber music experience including live and recorded musical examples. All are welcome to attend this free event. No tickets required.

Tuesday, Feb. 24, 7 p.m.
Spring Wind Quintet
UH West O'ahu Library

The Spring Wind Quintet will perform Bach's Prelude & Fugue in E minor, Baldwin's "Dreams of the White Tiger," Maslanka's Wind Quintet No. 4, Bach's Prelude & Fugue in G minor and Taffanel's "Wind Quintet."

Tuesday, March 17, 7 p.m.
Honolulu Brass Quintet with Harpist Constance Uejio
UH West O'ahu Library

The Honolulu Brass Quintet featuring Harpist Constance Uejio will perform Poulenc's "Sonata," Morley Calvert's "Suite from the Monterey Hills," Sampson's "Morning Music" and Rayner Brown's "Concertino for Harp and Brass Quintet."

Tuesday, April 7, 7 p.m.
Galliard String Quartet
UH West O'ahu Library

The Galliard String Quartet will perform Mozart's Quartet in F, Brahms' Quartet in C minor and a newly commissioned work by UH West O'ahu Assistant Professor of Music Dr. Jon Magnussen, supported by the Honolulu Mayor's Office on Culture and the Arts.

To purchase concert tickets, visit <http://chambermusichawaii.org/tickets/> or call (808) 489-5038. Students must present a valid student ID at the concerts for free admission. Tickets are $25 for adults and $20 for seniors, military, and UH West O'ahu faculty and staff. Discounted prices are available if purchasing tickets for all three UH West O'ahu concerts.
