The Year of Excellence in Teaching and Learning (received from FSRC 8/18/2010)

Concept: The Year of Excellence in Teaching and Learning is a recognition and celebration of the faculty, staff and students that make Kapi‘olani Community College excellent.

Components:

Teaching (Faculty Senate)
1 Excellence in Teaching Award for full-time faculty
1 Excellence in Teaching Award for outstanding lecturer
1 Francis Davis Award for excellence in undergraduate instruction
   - rotating award across UHCCs, comes to KapCC once every 2-3 years
* (1 CELTT Award for Excellence in Integrating Technology and Teaching: online, web-enhanced, innovative instruction, etc.)

Staff (Staff Council)
* (Campus Award(s) for Excellence)

Learning (Chancellor’s office)
1 Chancellor’s Award
1 BOSA Award
* (1 Service Learning Award)
* (1 Campus Award for Excellence in Mentoring/Tutoring/Student Service)
* (1 BOSP Award for Publications Excellence)

* to be initiated this academic year

Collaboration:

- Faculty Senate
- Chancellor’s Office
- KapCC Administration
- Staff Council
- Student Congress
- BOSA (Student Engagement)
- BOSP (Kapi‘o)
- Service Learning
CELT

Innovations:

- Year of Excellence in Teaching and Learning website (CELT)
- Revision of entire ETA process and procedures (FSRC)
- Advertising through Kapi‘o, direct emails, departments, faculty, banners, etc. (Faculty, Chancellor’s office, Admin., CELTT)
- Online nominations of faculty, staff and students (CELT, campus)
- Simplified, streamlined acceptance process, including:
  - Online acceptance of nominations and submission of documents (FSRC, campus units)
- Public review process, including poster sessions, panel discussions, etc. (FSRC, campus units)
- Awards given at Commencement (Chancellor’s office)

Timeline: TBA