C. Distance Education (S. Jaworowski) – Ad Hoc Distance Learning Committee Chair Jaworowski summarized the DLC written report on Office Hours. The DLC submitted four recommendations (summarized below – see report for full text):

2. Every KCC syllabus for all courses should state the faculty contact methods, with the committee’s recommended maximum 24 hour response time to emails (excluding weekends and holidays).

4. Require department chairs to ensure that new online faculty and lecturers are apprised of the above requirements via training or mentoring before they teach for the first time. Require a peer evaluation of all online courses faculty the first time they teach, including an evaluation of student contact according to the above recommendations.
