Date: February 7, 1995

To: Janice Cook, Vice Chairperson

From: Nancy Bushnell, Chair of Faculty Senate, KCC

Re: Update of \textit{Disruptive Behavior Policy abbreviated version} to be published in Catalog and Schedule of Class.

Please include the following excerpt the working draft

\textbf{Definition of Disruptive Behavior}
Disruptive behavior is behavior which Kapi`olani Community College regards as speech or action which 1) is disrespectful, offensive, and/or threatening, 2) interferes with the learning of other students, 3) impedes the delivery of College services, and/or 4) has a negative impact in any learning environment—including department and staff offices, the Library, the Computing Center, the Learning Assistance Centers, labs, clinical sites, service learning sites, etc. Disruptive behavior includes physically, verbally or psychologically harassing, threatening, or acting abusively toward instructors, staff members, or toward other students in any activity authorized by the College. Disruptive behavior also includes any other behavior covered by the Student Conduct Code.

\textbf{Disciplinary Action}
Disciplinary actions which the college may impose include a formal warning, probation, suspension, and dismissal. An instructor referring a student for disciplinary actions does so under the provisions of the Student Conduct Code. This Code stipulates that the Provost may impose disciplinary sanctions upon a student only after a Student Conduct Committee hearing has taken place. However, students whose behavior is disruptive may be subject to immediate disciplinary action in a emergency situation. In such cases, the Provost may impose the sanction of suspension prior to a hearing.

\textbf{Sanctions}
Sanctions against a student may be imposed by the Provost only after a Student Conduct Committee hearing has taken place. On an informal basis, the Dean of Student Services may impose only the sanctions of warning or probation if the matter is settled without a Student Conduct Committee hearing.

For further information, please refer to the Student Conduct Code available at the Department Chairs' office or the Dean of Student Services.