In what way did you provide service?

What parts of your assignment/service did you find most beneficial?

Your favorite “A-ha!” moment?

What did you learn through this experience that you did not know before?

Was the service learning process clear?