Continue to think about your sources of authority for the rest of the course. This will help you create the confidence necessary to be a teacher. Seriously... a teacher is an authority in the lives of most people. It is a difficult path to walk if you do not know what you yourself knows and thinks. When we know ourselves and are comfortable with ourselves, it is much easier to ask people to follow our leadership and authority. Gain confidence!!!!!!