

INTERNSHIPS

CELTT has hosted internships in collaboration with a variety of programs at Kapi'olani CC, the University of Hawai'i – Mānoa, and Hawai'i Pacific University at the undergraduate and graduate levels. The following is a list of internships that have occurred in the last three years.

Institution and Program for Which Internship was Performed	Nature of Internship	Supervisor
UH Library and Information Science Program	Interns learn about and participate in digitizing projects for the campus.	IT Specialist PBB
KapCC New Media Arts Program	Students assist with video production, video editing, and website design.	Media Specialist PBB, IT Specialist PBB
Community Colleges for International Development Program	IT majors in this program perform internships in networking and help desk support.	Electronic Technician PBB, IT Specialist PBA
UHM Educational Foundations Department	A PhD student in collaborated with CELTT in the area of distance learning policy issues. We guided his research, provided him access to relevant committees, and supervised his work in drafting documents related to copyright and DMCA issues.	Unit Coordinator/Asst. Prof.
UHM ETEC Department	Two PhD students in Educational Technology worked on projects for KapCC. CELTT also provided mentoring in the area of technology management and leadership in educational settings.	Unit Coordinator/Asst. Prof.