

Professional Development~~Community--Building~~Innovation~~Leadership

Generation XII: Aug. 2017 – Dec. 2018

Must be available for the induction meeting: April 21, 2017

Eligibility: All full-time faculty and APTs are eligible to apply.

To Apply: Submit a one-page application narrative which addresses:

- Your demonstrated leadership or interest in developing leadership skills
- Your commitment to putting learning first
- Your commitment to innovation
- Your commitment to sharing knowledge and expertise

Benefits:

- Receive a $2,000.00 grant for your own professional development good for the life of your University career
- Travel, meet and network with other Wo Learning Champions (WoLC) through the UHCC system
- Refine your leadership and organization skills

Duties:

- Develop and conduct system-wide professional development activities
- Commit to mentorship
- Network with previous generation WoLCs
- Attend monthly WoLC meetings during the Fall and Spring semesters, neighbor island travel is required and funded
- Enhance your own professional development
- Engage in collaborative, collegial campus and system activities
- Coordinate one campus wide professional development event
- Be the ambassador of the WoLC initiative on campus
- Serve an 18-month term from Aug. 2017 – Dec. 2018

Visit <http://wolc.hawaii.edu> to learn more about Wo Learning Champions. Please submit your one-page application to Annie Thomas athomas@hawaii.edu or Mark Kunimune markkuni@hawaii.edu. An ad hoc committee consisting of former Wo Learning Champions will review all nominations and participate in the selection.

DEADLINE: Saturday, Feb. 18, 2017