

"Ka Hae Nani o Hawaii,
E mau kona welo ana."
Ka Nupepa Kuokoa. 1862

HAWAIIAN INDEPENDENCE & GOVERNANCE

A discussion of the past & future of the nation of Hawai'i

Thurs, April 28, 5:30-7:30pm

Kapi'olani CC, 'Ōhi'a 118

Speakers

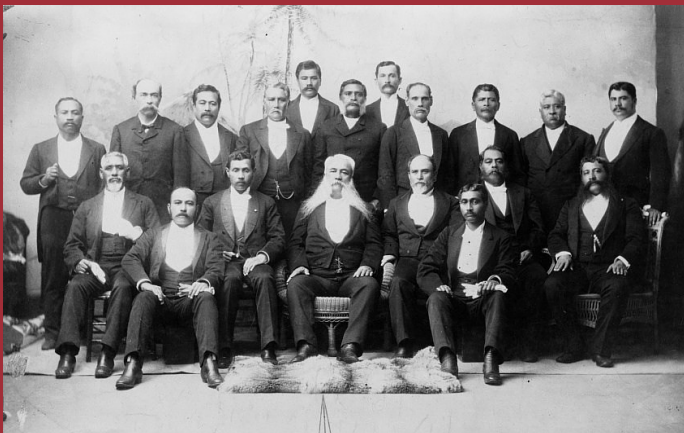

KCC HWST 255 students

Williamson Chang

Noe Goodyear-Ka'ōpua

Willy Kauai

Kalamaoka'aina Niheu

Hui Aloha 'Āina or the Hawaiian Patriotic League, 1893

Questions?

Contact Kahele Cruz (nclark@hawaii.edu)

or Annie Thomas (athomas@hawaii.edu)

(808)734-9599

Students from HWST 255: Intro to the Kingdom of Hawai'i

Professor Williamson Chang, J.D.

Professor of Law at UHM Richardson School of Law. As a Na'i Aupuni candidate, Prof. Chang participated in the Na'i Aupuni 'Aha held in Feb. 2016

Noelani Goodyear-Ka'ōpua, Ph.D.

Asst. Professor of Political Science at UHM and co-founder of Hālau Kū Mana, a Hawaiian culture-based charter school.

Willy Kauai, Ph.D.

Director of Native Hawaiian Student Services at UHM. His 2014 PhD dissertation was entitled, "The Color of Nationality: Continuity & Discontinuities of Citizenship in Hawai'i."

Kalama Niheu, M.D.

Co-founder of 'Aha Aloha 'Āina, a grassroots coalition aimed at re-establishing Kanaka Maoli governance and resisting Na'i Aupuni's claim to be the sole representative of the Hawaiian people.